LTI Technology Solutions Welcomes Chris Benes as Sales Executive

OMAHA, NE, September 14, 2026 – LTI Technology Solutions \(LTI\), a leading provider of lifecycle software solutions for the equipment finance industry, today announced that Chris Benes has joined the company as Sales Executive, strengthening the team as LTI continues to grow its presence and deepen relationships within the equipment finance industry.

Benes brings a strong background in sales leadership and business development to his new role at LTI. Most recently, he served as Director of Sales at PropTech IQ, where he helped drive growth in the real estate technology space. Earlier in his career, he held sales leadership roles including Sales Manager at Geokey, developing skills in relationship management, business development, and technical sales that he will now bring to his work building new partnerships across the equipment finance space.

In his new role, Benes will focus on new business development, working closely with prospective clients and industry partners to understand their needs and introduce them to LTI's solutions, helping expand LTI's footprint and contribute to the broader growth of the equipment finance industry.

"Chris brings exactly the kind of energy, curiosity, and relationship-first mindset we look for on this team," said Tara Aasand, VP of Sales and Relationship Management at LTI. "His background in building strong business relationships and his genuine drive to understand what prospective partners need make him a great fit for LTI. We're excited to see the impact he'll have as he builds new relationships and helps grow our presence across the industry."

"I'm excited to join LTI and get my hands dirty from day one," said Benes. "There's a lot of opportunity here, and I'm looking forward to rolling up my sleeves, learning the business inside and out, and building real relationships with prospective partners across the industry. I can't wait to get started and contribute to the team's momentum."
